

Chapter Events Weekly Update

The Zeldathon Team, an organization of young gamers dedicated to raising money for charity, hosted a 96 hour event for the American Red Cross on Tuesday the July 19th 2011. Zeldathon for the American Red Cross (or ZARC) featured the Zeldathon Team, along with Mases from the popular Legend of Zelda fan site Zelda Dungeon, playing every Legend of Zelda game ever published, including the CD-i games!

Representatives presented the proceeds to Pam Masi, Executive Director of the Erie Red Cross Chapter (far left). Co-Owners of Zeldathon - Michael Coddington, (second from right), and Matthew Moffit (far left) along with Charissa Coddington (second from left), organized this unique charity event which raised over $10,000 to support American Red Cross Disaster Services.

